The Fuller List

The Club Select List was introduced to offer fine wine representing excellent value to Members. These hand-selected wines are a step-up in quality from the main list that have either been selected from wine merchants' fine wine lists or directly imported by the Club. Whilst this list is currently populated by old world favourites, our aim is to create a balanced wine list in the coming months with different styles of wine from both new world and old world producers at attractive prices.

The Fuller list is named in memory of Commander Malcolm Fuller who served as Chairman of the Wine Committee for 9 years and was pivotal in the development of providing additional value and benefit to members who enjoy great wine.

- Mr Gavin Peake-Jones, Chairman of the Wine Committee

The food pairing suggestions are made in an effort to help but with due humility, recognising that they are entirely subjective and that Members may well have different tastes and ideas!

Champagne

Bottle

Frerejean Frères Champagne, La Grande Réserve, Brut, NV

£65.00

A radiant golden hue opens to fresh and refined notes on the nose of honeysuckle and white flowers, revealing exceptional complexity and creaminess.

Frerejean Frères Champagne, Rose, NV

£80.00

On the nose, very flattering with notes of candied red fruits, blackberries and blackcurrant, it soon reveals a rich structure and profound generosity

White Wine

Bottle

Rioja, Tempranillo Blanco, Queiron Mi Lugar, Spain, 2021

£50.00

Intense aromas of stone fruit with white blossom and notes of fennel and thyme. with notes of clove and tobacco on the long finish. A catholic wine which will elegantly accompany most dishes other than red meats

Riesling, Domaine Rolly-Gassmann, Alsace, France, 2019

£50.00

The nose is intense, bright and enticing, with lemon sherbet and orange blossom. Upon tasting, there's refreshing acidity and notes of citrus and stone-fruit, cushioned by a hint of sweetness that demands another sip. With a clean and saline finish, this is best enjoyed with fish or grilled-cheese dishes.

Monthelie, Cuvee Clara, Domaine Piguet-Chouet, France, 2023

£50.00

Expressive aromas of pears, grapefruit, fresh pineapple and butter, this wine is rich, well balanced, fat, with a greedy, fresh, crisp, delicious fruitiness, great intensity and a beautiful balance, which is the signature of great white wines. Serve with shellfish, salmon, soft cheeses or cured meat.

White Wine

Bottle

Sancerre, Comte Lafond, France, 2025

£55.00

This is a stunning white wine with a rich and complex bouquet. The aroma of the wine displays notes of ripe citrus, stone fruits and a hint of minerality. The palate is fresh, vibrant, and intense with a perfect balance of acidity and roundness. The finish is long and refreshing. This wine can be paired perfectly with fish, seafood or cheese.

Chablis Premier Cru Montmains, Domaine Malandes, France, 2020

£55.00

Cooling tangs of limestone and chalk weave into rich, concentrated white-peach and grapefruit flavors in this wine. Intensely ripe yet grounded thoroughly in Chablis, it's a salt-struck, luscious sip offset by bright lemon acidity and a steely, well-honed finish. This pairs beautifully with seafood, shellfish, light poultry, fresh cheeses

Meyer-Fonné Kaefferkopf Riesling Grand Cru, Alsace, France, 2021

£55.00

Dense and chiselled, this is serious Riesling, a wine whose deep complexity has only just begun to emerge beneath layers of chewy flesh, stone, and steely acidity. Perfect with seafood or fish, especially Turbot or Monkfish. It is also a wonderful accompaniment to scallop tartar, or the most delicate meats such as lobster or crayfish.

Condrieu Heritage, Domaine Niero, Rhône Valley, France, 2017

£65.50

Floral notes mark the nose, while the ripe fruit ranges from melon to apricot and pineapple, all underscored by a potent note of wet stones and a lingering finish. This voignier is great with rich full flavoured fish dishes, lobster, tagines, mild fish or chicken curries

200 Monges, Gran Reserva Rioja, Bodegas Vinicola Real, Spain, 2009

£105.00

This wonderfully complex Rioja has a bright golden colour and aromas of dried flowers, ripe fruit, wild herbs, and dried fruit. The palate is robust, flavourful, and spicy with a backbone of citrus notes, ending with a long and saline finish, it is a true testament to the artistry of Spanish winemaking. This wine matches perfectly with shellfish, cured meats, chicken & turkey.

Red Wine

The staff will always be happy to decant any of these wines upon request and without exception, the Master of the Cellar and your wine committee recommend that it is done for all of these wines.

Half Bottle

Chateau Angludet, Margaux, France, 2020

£40.00

Deepest crimson with smudgy rim. Lively, fresh aroma with the fruit not the oak to the fore. Cassis, blackberry and some red-plum sweetness, which comes through on the palate. Not particularly intense but harmonious, with finely layered dry tannins. This is a perfect match with Asian dishes, hearty fish courses, mushrooms as well as cheese

Bottle

Memoria Tinto Reserva Especial, Quinto Dos Capuchos, Portugal, 2015

£41.00

Powerful and intense with complex aromas of dark berry fruits, balsamic and spicy dark chocolate with an intense ruby color. Vibrant on the palate with fine tannin, it is full-bodied and perfectly balanced. Works well with thick cut steaks, roast lamb or smoked cheese

Chassagne Montrachet Morgeot 1er Cru, Stephane Piguet, France, 2023

£60.00

On the nose are intense aromas of ripe red cherry and berry fruit. The palate is zippy and playful, with a delightful crunchiness to the red fruit. The aftertaste is creamy and elegant. . Great with veal, venison, lamb or pasta.

Chateau Batailley, Paullac, France, 2014

£65.00

The nose is deep in blackcurrant and graphite with wood spice. The palate is chalky, with the tannic bite of the vintage matched by chiselled black fruit, incense and dried meat spice. The finish is savoury and layered. It is best served with all types of classic meat dishes, veal, pork, beef, lamb, duck, game

Savigny-Les-Beaune 1er Cru Les Vergelesses, Burgundy, France, 2020

£65.00

Beautiful fragrant, rose petal, tayberry and wild alpine strawberry grace this wine which has a lovely delicacy to it thanks to fine, powdery tannins. Graceful, with a touch of tension on the finish. Perfect with poultry, a good cut of beef and cheeses like Chaource, Cantal, Tomme or Mont d'Or

Château Grand-Puy Ducasse, Paulliac, France, 2016

£65.00

Perfumed cassis on the nose with earthy undertones and a subtle touch of herbs and smokiness. Medium-bodied with a delightful texture and lingering cedar notes. This wine is best paired with rich red meats, roasted lamb with herbs, or game. The notes of cassis, tobacco and espresso would complement grilled ribeye steak, confit duck, or a hearty mushroom risotto

Red Wine

Bottle

Chateau Langoa Barton, Saint Julien, France, 2016

£70.00

This wine is deep garnet in color. It bursts with flamboyant notes of warm black cherries, dried mulberries, and crushed blackcurrants, plus hints wild thyme. Roast beef, lamb, venison, game or mature hard cheeses would match perfectly.

Hermitage, Domaine Du Colombier, Rhône Valley, France, 2019

£75.00

A bold Syrah with rich aromas of red berry and cherry alongside hints of pepper and mineral notes. The palate is smooth with fine tannins and great length. It pairs best with robust, high-flavor dishes such as grilled lamb chops, roasted game, braised beef or duck. Its tannins and acidity also complement steak, hard cheeses, and truffle-based dishes.

Côte-Rôtie Côte Rozier, Domaine Bonnefond, Rhône Valley, France, 2016

£75.00

This is a full-bodied, powerful Syrah-based wine praised for its rich fruit, spicy notes, and elegant structure. Key characteristics include dark fruit flavors like black cherry, floral hints, and a savory finish with complex notes of graphite, crushed rocks and smoked meat. pairs well with rich meat dishes like roast beef, lamb, or game, and dishes with earthy flavors like truffle or mushroom-based meals. Other successful pairings include stews such as beef bourguignon and grilled or roasted meats.

Château Talbot, Saint Julien, France 2009

£100.00

Garnet hue with a hint of brick colour at the edge belies the youthfulness of this gorgeous wine. Succulent black fruit sits on a firm but suave base. Ripe and welcoming on the nose; marked by the Cabernet and terroir with dark fruit and minty, stony notes to the fore. Fine tannins give plenty of length and drive. Talbot is best served with all types of classic meat dishes, hearty seafood or richly textured fish like tuna.

Corton Clos Du Roi, Grand Cru, Burgundy, France, 2010

£130.00

Corton Clos du Roi has fruity and spicy aromas (pepper, clove). The palate has some power and continues the ripe fruit theme. Some tentative hints of ripe, dark cherry and subtle notions of peony petal. There is well-toned muscle, and the plushness of the fruit smoothes over the firm, ripe and very structured tannins. This has true class, poise and elegance. It pairs excellently with red meats, game, duck dishes and aged cheeses. Perhaps even earthy mushrooms and truffle.

Dessert Wine

Half Bottle

Château Coutet, Barsac, Grand Vin De Sauternes, France, 2013

£43.00

Ch. Coutet is really pretty in 2013. It is more floral than many from this vintage and shows a rich sweetness balanced with lots of engaging acidity. The wine is aromatically complex and lusciously concentrated. It is showing signs of dried apricots, orange blossom and even a little mango. This wine pairs beautifully with rich, savory dishes and select desserts, including foie gras, blue cheese, seafood, and lightly sweet pastries
